NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION: MCC employees and students shall not be subjected to unlawful discrimination and/or harassment on the basis of sex/gender, race, color, age, creed, national or ethnic origin, physical or mental disability, veteran status, pregnancy status, religion, genetic information, gender identity, or sexual orientation in its employment practices or educational programs and activities. Lack of English skills will not be a barrier to admission to, or participation in, the college. For more info, including where to direct inquiries, visit: http://www.MorganCC.edu/about-mcc/legal-notices.

ADA STATEMENT: MCC complies with and fully supports Section 504 of the vocational rehabilitation act of 1973 with amendments of 1974 as well as the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990. “No qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be subjected to discrimination.” Students have the responsibility to self-identify to the institution as a person with a disability or special need. Appropriate documentation must be provided to the ADA coordinator. Students of special populations may be eligible for “reasonable accommodations” so long as they meet and follow MCC policy and procedures. http://www.morgancc.edu/students/future-students/disability-services/ Those wishing to seek accommodations must contact June 5—June 11, 2017
